The Granite City Council may soon move off center on the issue of recycling.

The council's Sanitation Committee met for an hour Tuesday night — 45 minutes in executive session — to discuss how the city will comply with a directive from Madison County to have a recycling plan in place by July 1.

A state mandate requires counties to have a recycling plan in place and to be recycling 25 percent of the countywide waste stream by that date.

Group to unite black voters

A political action group is trying to round up 5,000 black oters in Madison County to strengthen the voice of black residents.

James Gray, president and co-founder of the Madison County Political Action Committee, said the black community has been "too fragmented" in the past, often splitting its votes among several candidates.

MCPAC wants to change that.

By organizing black voters, the committee can make a significant impact on elections, Gray said.

"Sometimes, a block of votes can make a difference in who gets into office. We know we can make that difference."

The committee hopes to have 5,000 members by summer.

Knott, Davis trade charges

A rare contest for the Democratic nomination for the 111th District Illinois House seat is heating up as two candidates exchange jabs and tout their plans for governmental reform. Madison County Board member Charles "Tim" Knott, 32, said constituents deserve equal representation in the House and not just the "select group" currently being represented by incumbent state Rep. Steve Davis.

Davis, 46, scoffed at Knott's analysis, and said he has an excellent record of standing up for all men and women.

TIF bill called 'devastating'

A bill that would eliminate new or expanded tax increment financing districts would be "devastating" to economic development in Illinois, an official from the Southwestern Illinois Development Authority said.

have added the IRA, both with moral support and money for arms.

Note please, Americans of Irish descent, I'm sick and tired of hearing about Irish-Americans, Italian-Americans, Americans, especially from folks who are third-fourth-fifth generation Americans by birth.

I'm also sick and tired of these apolegists for IRA violence who are still fighting the so-called martyrs like Padraic Pearse, and citing the historic sins of the British against the Irish. Always with the same conclusion: The violence will continue until the British milicontinue until the British milicontinue until the British milicontinue until the British milicontinue until the British gainst the Irish Cur way or no way.

Boy, can these guys hold a grudge!

These same Americans-of-Irish-descent wouldn't think of comparing the actions of the set off the bomb in Oklahoma. City. Or the German neo-Nazis. Personally, I see no difference.

Other side to zoning story

TO THE EDITOR: I read the editorial dated March 7, 1996, titled "Politician Shows Stripes," and I felt it was my civic duty to inform the readers as to the truth regarding this matter.

My name is Buzz Morris, and I have owned and operat-ed my own heating and air conditioning business in Mitch-ell for 44 years. I vote, but have never been a political activist.

It began simply enough. I needed extra space in which to fabricate duct work, so I rented a barn, which had previously been occupied by another heating contractor. Part of the building is occupied by Granite building is occupied by Granite to the contract of the building is occupied to the facility has been used for various businesses since 1973.

I contacted my county board member, Charles "Tim" Knott, and, after he liscussee informed me the majority of the neighbors would agree to a special use permit but would not agree to rezoning. He instructed me in the proper steps to be taken to receive a permit. A special use permit permit A special use permit permit A special use permit think the safety of our children is more important.

My hope is that there are others who feel the same way I do. I would encourage you to do the same way I do. I would encourage you to do the same way I do. I would encourage you to go the same way I do. I would encour city can but and I would encour city can be same to say, but I feel we deserve the indifference we allow by our indifference we allow by our indifference I was thankful the other day as I was driving to work, listening to the radio. Thankful that my kids arrived safely, unlike the poor girl and bus we we have that happen here.

The next time I read the

The permit came with stipulations that must be adhered to. Any violation of these stipulations would mean revocation right? Wrog. Fair enough, right? Wrog. Board member Charles Board member Charles Knott came to the bouse and apologized for the outcome of the hearing and explained to me that it was all a matter of "politics as usual" and it was mothing I had done.

The same day the permit and it was mothing I had done. The same day be momented her candidacy for continued the candidacy for the candidacy for an American citizen. But, tell methis: Where do her right as an American citizen. But, tell methis: Where do her right as day day of the continued of the right thing. He did what any good board member, would have. Davis voting record strong

TO THE EDITOR:

On March 19, we will go to the polls to elect a state representative for District 111. The choice is between Steve Davis and Tim Knott.

During the last two years, Steve Davis as our state repre-sentative has a 100-percent vot-ing record on bills involving union employees. During the last two years, Steve Davis has supported legislation that calls for stiffer penalties for criminals.

During the last three years, Tim Knott as a county board member has one of the wore attendance records on being at meetings. During the last big flood, people who were losing their homes on Chouteau Island were calling Tim Knott for help. All they got was his answering machine. When I asked him about this, his reply was that he was too busy.

By their own records, you can see who really represents the people. I want a representative that not-only attends the meetings he is being paid for, but a representative that is available when I need him. That representative is Steve Davis.

TO THE EDITOR:

My wife and I have decided that it was time to quit just talking about politics: So, after many years of absence from the political scene, we have become active again. We have become active again. We have months for a young man who we believe can make a difference in the 111th District. His name is Charles "Tim" Knott.

We have donated, put up standing the done of the control of the control

More than 100 years ago, William and Frederick Niedringhaus selected the area now known as Granite City as the site of an industrial complex supporting their graniteware business.

The brothers chose the area because land and labor were relatively cheap and because of the accessibility of a water supply.

But since that time, the city that grew up around the Granite City Steel Works and Stamping Works has prospered due to its most vital resource—hardworking people who have brighter future.

Last week, the Granite City Centennial Corp. hosted "A Toast to Granite City", a dinner kicking off the city's 9-month long centennial celebration. The dinner was held at St. Gregory's Armenian Community Center.

Budget differences fall along partisan lines

SPRINGFIELD — Area Republican lawmakers have praised Gov. Jim Edgar's budges are the continuous process of the continuous process.

But area Democratic legislators questioned whether the budget would put much more money into area classrooms and whether the goal of keeping 'current' on payments to Medicaid for Republicans said they hoped Democrats would now drop their opposition to issuing more bonds for state construction projects, at least one area Democrat, Rep. Steve Davis, D-Bethalto, said his position is unchanged, despite the $22 million in projects at A big area of uncertainty is whether the Legislature would approve the governor's proposal to boost the state tax on the more profitable riverboat casinos. The plan would raise about $67 million of the $220 million in additional funding for budget plan.

Davis, whose district includes the Atton Belle Casino, said he opposes the tax boost.

He also contended that only about $60 million of the increase for schools in the governor's budget goes directly into the school aid. formula The self-hi insurance costs and new technology initiatives.

The criticism was echoed by Sen. Vince Demuzio, D-Carlinville, who contended that with school districts back home will hardly notice they got an increase."

Demuzio and Sen. Evelyn Bowles, D-Edwardsville, also criticized the governor for not proposing any spending in his budget to correct the large inequities among districts in spending per pull.

on prison construction, arguing that more money should instead be put into early education programs.

Sen. Frank Watson. R-Greenville, said he was particularly pleased the governor's budget also praised the governor's budget also praised the governor's endorsement of 99 percent of the funding level requested by the State Board of Education.

State Board of Education.

Rep. Ron Stephens, R-Troy, emphasized the 50,000 construction jobs involved in the state projects in the governor's bud get. He predicted incumbent Deliber by the projects will face defeat at the polls in the fall.

Davis conceded, "I have many friends in the construction industry and I'm getting pressure to vote for that."

But he said he believed a "fiscally responsive state government" was more in the construction in the said he state's bond rating and argued there was still a backlog of more than $1$ billion in old bills, according to the comptroller.

boats (total retail value over $44,000) in the world's first indoor bass tournament, "MTA's Bass for Cash."

Here's how it works: MTA's Bass for Cash heats will be held with 18 anglers participating per heat. Each heat, the tournament director announces, "Anglers fish." giving the anglers opportunities to try to catch six bass from their own cove on Lake MTA.

Some of the bass are tagged for instant prizes. Each fish is randomly selected from the Bass for Cash tournament director's computer. The winning angler is determined by the total weight of bass caught in the event.

The entry fee to compete in the Bass for Cash tournament is $20, which includes a 12-month subscription to MTA magazine. For more informa-tion, call 277-1044.

"We're Right in Your Backyard"

DATED this 11th day of March, 1996 GRANITE CITY PARK DISTRICT BILLIE L. SCHULER, SECRETARY

LEGAL NOTICE
The Madison County Board of Review in accordance with Section 12-40 and to Section 12-40 and Section

The Department of Revenue has issued a tentative county multiplier of 1.0377, however, the following changes will go into effect to equalize the townships:

Said changes shall apply to all classes of real property; provided, however, that said changes shall not apply to farm and coal property. Section 10-110 through 10-140 and Sections 10-170 through 10-200 of the Property Tax Code.

A Board of Review hearing will be held to afford interested persons an opportunity to be heard on the proposed changes, which shall not take effect until after such hearing.

Interested persons may appear at the Madison County Ad-ministration Building; 157 N. Main, Ste. 222, Edwardsville, I. on April 3, 1996, at 10:00 A.M. if they wish to be heard. Telephone: 692-6210
